

Seasons Greetings Family and Friends,

As we reflect on this past year, we are especially mindful of the strength, resilience, and unity that define our Pasadena-Altadena community. Through moments of challenge and renewal, the Pasadena-Altadena (CA) Chapter of The Links, Incorporated has remained devoted to uplifting the families, seniors, and students at the heart of our mission. We invite you to join us in this commitment by supporting our academic scholarships and community programs.

Since 1963, our chapter has invested in programs that create connection, opportunity, and lasting impact, including:

The Isaac McClelland Memorial Scholarships

More than $800,000 awarded to Pasadena Unified School District high school seniors pursuing higher education and career aspirations.

Links Up for Success: She Leads in STEAM

An award-winning mentoring program for Black girls in grades 7–12, offering leadership development, STEAM learning, and hands-on experiences that nurture confidence and curiosity.

Black Family Wellness Expo

A signature wellness fair providing health screenings, dental screenings for children, and valuable health and support resources for families.

Community Service

Our members regularly prepare dinners for homeless families and volunteer at local church food banks that provide groceries to households in need.
